

A. Review & Motion to approve minutes from October and November meetingsB. Announcements/Informational items

- 1) Congratulations to Kelly Goldberg for being awarded a CAS small equipment grant for $20,000. CAS also awarded faculty conference travel grants to both Kelly and John Doering-White back in October.
- 2) ASA stickers are in the office and available for anthropology majors to pick up. Let UG Anthropology majors know in your courses that they can swing by the main office to get their ASA stickers to adorn whatever items they see fit. We bought a large batch to get ASA members started. ASA officers can then be in charge of reprints as part of future fundraising efforts.
- 3) Collaborative Humanities Anthropology Group announced the two recipients of student travel conference scholarships. The awardees are Mackenzie Farmer and Savannah Keating. Mackenzie will be attending the SfAA meeting in March 2023, and Savannah will attend the the AABAs in April 2023.
- 4) Stephen Walkes participated in the Shadow an Archaeologist program that took place over the 17-18th of November though a dental emergency cut short some of the planned events.
- 5) Poli Sci request to do a mural partnering with SVAD to paint a mural of the Palmetto Tree logo (and Horseshoe gates) with 'University of South Carolina' written below on our shared wall in the Atrium.
- 6) Holiday gathering – Dec 8th – Jennifer' Backyard starting at 5PM
- 7) Last Faculty Meeting for Midterm review Friday Dec. 9th 3:30-4:30?
- 8) CAS Nov. 4th HBCU Event Debrief. Kelly reports that CAS (through Twiss) still has funds available for departments looking to do any recruitment outreach involving in-person visits to HBCUs, and is actively encouraging departments to use it, if anyone is interested in planning something.
- 9) Public Heritage Lab's photogrammetry workshop-- Feb 9-10. It will be a hands-on training for the full two days (capped at 16 participants) with a keynote on broader applications of photogrammetry from 12:30-1:30 open to the general public. Digital Humanities has agreed to co-organize, and all sessions will be held in the Hollings library presentation room and library computer classrooms.
- 10) LeConte Lab move begins 12/13! The LeConte space will be ready in a little over a week and it looks spectacular. Movers will consolidate all the items spread across campus and bring to that space on 12/13.

C. Reports and discussion:1. AGORAE Representative –McGraw*2. Undergraduate Director – Jones

- a. Reminder about Kingsolver Essay deadline on Friday
- b. Assessment worksheets for this semester
- c. Assessment survey going out this week
- d. Spring course enrollments
- e. Major numbers update

3. Graduate Director – Weik

- a. WANTED: Grad Council representative for anth dept.
- b. student assessments coming soon – Also need to settle a time during finals week for Graduate midterm evaluations [Dec. 9th 1 PM?]
- c. Admissions
- d. Recruitment
- e. Reports on Grad Director...Grad Council meetings

4. 4-Field Curriculum & Course Scheduling – Moskowitz5. T & P Chair - DeWitte*6. SCIAA News - King*7. Colloquium Coordinators – Barra & Yolmo*8. Hiring Business*a. Bridge Postdoc Update

- i. Draft for the position in Linguistic Anthropology
- ii. Bio position?

D. Old BusinessE. New Business – No by-laws are on file in CAS. Anthropology should move forward in developing them.

Drue has volunteered to steer this effort. Jennifer has already compiled more examples from English, LLC and Poli Sci in addition to History so that we can compare and decide what will work best for us.

F. Good of the Order